In School

Brief Program Description: Rugby W.O.R.K.S (Workforce and Occupational Readiness for Kids that are Special) is an interactive transition program that helps our students develop skills they will need to be successful after high school. All of our students are classified and have this transition program as part of the IEP. Students learn workplace readiness skills, develop social behaviors, explore career choices, learn the basics of fiscal responsibility, and practice real work experiences to build their confidence and develop their work skills. Higher level students will also receive the training and support they need to enter college or a vocational training program.
