Yin Yang Fusion Yoga

(adults)

This class is designed to train both your active and receptive modes of being. More rajasic or “type a” people will be met where they are while also beginning to develop techniques for slowing down and introspection. More tamasic or “mellow” people will also be met where they are while beginning to develop techniques for enlivening their energy system. The practice offers people of both constitutions a more sattvic, or balanced practice leaving them in a state of energized clarity and centeredness. Every class will end with a Metta meditation to endow the four universal wishes (to live happy, and to be free from hostility, affliction and distress).
