Explore the ancient and intricate art of bonsai during Bonsai Day on Sunday, September 16 from 12-4pm at Deep Cut Gardens, Middletown.

MIDDLETOWN —On Sunday, September 16 from 12-4pm, Deep Cut Gardens and the Deep Cut Bonsai Society will present Bonsai Day. Experience this intricate and ancient art through demonstrations and displays, with experts on hand to answer any of your questions. Held annually on the lawn of the Horticultural Center at Deep Cut Gardens, Middletown, Bonsai Day lets the public get a glimpse as Bonsai Society members work on their trees. A lecture will be held at 1pm to discuss the process of starting a bonsai from an ordinary nursery-stock plant.
