ENTER THE DEEP CUT GARDENS' PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT

Patty Whelan's After the Rain was part of last year's exhibit.

MIDDLETOWN — Calling all nature photographers! The Monmouth County Park System is looking for entries for its Weather or Not photography exhibit to be held at Deep Cut Gardens, Middletown. The exhibit will look at some of the many ways the weather transforms Deep Cut's gardens and its elements, whether it be the glistening rays of sunshine or the raindrops falling. Professional and amateur photographers 18 years and older are invited to submit images for consideration into the show. The cost to enter is $10 per person; maximum of two entries. Acceptance into the show is not guaranteed. If selected, only one piece will be exhibited in the show. All entries must be submitted on CD with completed entry form and fee. Rules and entry form are available on the Deep Cut Gardens' page at www.monmouthcountyparks.com and at the site. Entry deadline is November 20.

The exhibit will be open daily from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., January 3-31 at the Deep Cut Gardens Horticultural Center, Red Hill Road, Middletown. An opening reception is planned from 1-3 p.m. on Saturday, January 2 when the public is invited to view the exhibit, meet the photographers, and enjoy light refreshments.

For information on the photography exhibit or Deep Cut Gardens, please visit www.monmouthcountyparks.com or call 732-842-4000, ext. 4312. For persons with hearing impairment, the TTY/TDD number is 711. The Monmouth County Park System, created in 1960 by the Monmouth County Board of Chosen Freeholders, is Monmouth County's Open Space, Parks, and Recreation agency.
