On June 16, 2005, the remains of an adult male were found in a small wooded area near Route 18 in Marlboro Township. Employees of the Monmouth County Highway Department who were working in the area discovered the body. The body was in an advanced stage of decomposition and no identification was found.

The investigation revealed that a 38 year-old Russian Immigrant identified as Sergey Kuretenyov had been reported missing to the New York Police Department's 61st Precinct on May 20, 2005.

The victim found in Marlboro was ultimately identified as being Kuretenyov.

If anyone has information on this murder they are urged to call:

Monmouth County Crime Stoppers.

Monmouth County Crime Stoppers will pay up to $5,000 for information that leads to the identification, arrest, and prosecution of any suspect in the murder of Sergey Kuretenyov.
