MONMOUTH COUNTY PARK SYSTEM POSTPONES ITS DEEP CUT GARDENS OPEN HOUSE

MIDDLETOWN— The Monmouth County Park System has announced that due to on-site construction work, it is rescheduling the Deep Cut Gardens Open House & National Public Gardens Day, originally planned for Friday-Sunday, May 11-13. It will now host a Deep Cut Gardens Open House on Sunday, June 10 from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. at Deep Cut Gardens, Red Hill Road, Middletown. During this Open House, visitors will enjoy garden tours and horticultural activities. Admission and parking are free.

For more information on Deep Cut Gardens or the Park System, visit www.MonmouthCountyParks.com or call 732-842-4000. The TTY/TDD number for people with hearing impairment is 711. The Monmouth County Park System, created in 1960 by the Monmouth County Board of Chosen Freeholders, is Monmouth County's Open Space, Parks and Recreation agency.
