The Monmouth County Fire Academy will be offering:

Firefighter 2 Written Equivalency Exam

- This is for NJ State Certification only and does not provide ProBoard or IFSAC accreditations.
- Exam Content comes from Jones & Bartlett Fundamentals of Firefighting Skills and Hazardous Materials Response, 4th Edition (NFPA 1001 Standard – 2019 edition).

Exam Requirements:

1. NJ Firefighter 1 certification on file with the NJ Division of Fire Safety
2. Have 5 years of experience as a Firefighter 1 prior to January 1, 2008
OR
3. Have previously taken a Firefighter 2 course of instructor prior to January 1, 2008.

Once we have a list of applicants, we will send that list on September 1 to the DFS. They will vet the list and once we know who has been vetted to take the exam, we will contact applicants to inform them if they have been approved to take the exam or not. This is not decided at the Academy level.

Each applicant gets one chance to pass this exam. Those that fail will be required to take and pass the full Firefighter 2 course.
