Agnet's Overview

The January 2008 issue of Agnet focused on the state of the farm economy and the challenges facing farmers. This issue continues the theme of change, looking at the impact of the 2008 election on the farm economy and the challenges facing farmers. The issue also features a special section on the 2008 election, with articles on the impact of the election on the farm economy and the challenges facing farmers.

In preparation for the 2008 election, we have assembled a special section on the 2008 election. This section includes articles on the impact of the election on the farm economy and the challenges facing farmers. The section also includes a special feature on the 2008 election, with articles on the impact of the election on the farm economy and the challenges facing farmers.

Landmark Clayton Farms joins Preservation Program

The Clayton Farms, located in the Township of Clayton, New Jersey, have been added to the State's Landmark Preservation Program. The program is designed to protect and preserve the historic and cultural resources of the State. The Clayton Farms are a historic site, and the program will help to ensure that the site is preserved for future generations.
